

DR. DAHLIA ARANCEL

*University of Southern Mindanao College of Medicine
Chairperson, Regional Anesthesia Council– Philippine Board of Anesthesiology*

Dr. Dahlia Arancel is a prominent figure in the field of regional anesthesia, she is the past Dean of the University of Southern Mindanao College of Medicine. She also holds several key positions in professional organizations dedicated to anesthesiology and trauma care. Dr. Arancel is the Chairperson of the Regional Anesthesia Council of the Philippine Board of Anesthesiology and the Section Head of Regional Anesthesia, Orthopedic and Trauma Anesthesia in Southern Philippines Medical Center.

Dr. Arancel's contributions to the field are further exemplified by her role as a Board Member of the Asia Oceanic Society of Regional Anesthesia and her past presidency of the Regional Anesthesia Society of the Philippines. Her extensive training in regional anesthesia and trauma was completed through a fellowship at Ganga Hospital in Coimbatore, India, a prestigious institution renowned for its expertise in this specialty.

With a career distinguished by leadership, education, and clinical excellence, Dr. Arancel is a key advocate for advancing practices in regional anesthesia and trauma management. Her expertise and commitment to the field have made a significant impact on both national and international levels.